   Improve their ability to read fiction as writers and to write fiction. The overall goal of this course is to allow students to improve their writing skills beyond the basic requirements of Freshman Composition. All courses encourage students to be more creative in the selection of topics, form, development, and content and to move their skills to a more advanced level in the specific genre (i.e. fiction, poetry, creative non-fiction).

E. LEARNING OUTCOMES (MNTC):
   Goal 2: Critical Thinking: The student will be able to:
   1. Gather factual information and apply it to a given problem in a manner that is relevant, clear, comprehensive, and conscious of possible bias in the information selected.
   2. Imagine and seek out a variety of possible goals, assumptions, interpretations, or perspectives, which can give alternative meanings or solutions to given situations or problems.
   3. Analyze the logical connections among the facts, goals, and implicit assumptions relevant to a problem or claim; generate and evaluate implications that follow from them.
   4. Recognize and articulate the value assumptions, which underlie and affect decisions, interpretations, analyses, and evaluations made by ourselves and others.

   Goal 6: The Humanities-the Arts, Literature, and Philosophy: The student will be able to:
   1. Demonstrate awareness of the scope and variety of works in the arts and humanities.
   2. Understand those works as expressions of individual and human values within a historical and social context.
   3. Respond critically to works in the arts and humanities.
   4. Engage in the creative process or interpretive performance.
   5. Articulate an informed personal reaction to works in the arts and humanities.
