10. What in your view are RCTC's greatest strengths?
#	Response
1	Openness to innovation
2	It's employees.
3	quality of faculty and staff
4	Those faculty/staff who are passionate about their jobs, students, and the college. There are some wonderful people on this campus.
5	It is well-known in the community as a first-place to start for higher education. There are many classes at various times.
6	President Supalla's public image and persona, campus grounds and facilities.
7	The employees are very skilled at what they do.
8	Don Supalla - some excellent instructors
9	I think the technology available to students on campus is top notch.
10	Its faculty. Some but not all of these folks are very good at what they do.
11	Strong academic programs.
12	The employees
13	Name recognition, technology
14	Good course offerings..
15	great coworkers
16	The faculty
17	The people that work here.
18	Strong athletics programs. Strong allied health programs. Cutting edge technology.
19	Location
20	Some faculty at RCTC are exceptional--although they tend not to be the faculty who are usually rewarded by administration. They are the faculty who quietly work with students, ensuring that students are mastering required and necessary skills--not the faculty who are always self-promoting. These diligent instructors are the best strength at RCTC.
21	The college President and the faculty that provide quality education to their students.
22	Friendly and personable faculty, staff, and administrators.
23	A great education in a variety of fields for a reasonable cost.
24	students and location
25	course offerings connection with Mayo/UofM/Winona State
26	The dedication of our faculty and staff.
27	Location People trying to do their best
28	Good leadership.
29	Its ongoing effort to be better, even if it often does not get better by measurable increments. It has a very large number of very dedicated and talented faculty.
30	President Supalla's leadership, in the whole - excellent instructors, in the whole - caring employees
31	The good faculty
32	Range of program options. Qualify faculty. Faculty leadership, especially in curriculum.
33	A rich history within the Rochester area, we'll be here tomorrow! We're a community college that cares about student outcome and helps students transition, transition being a key word here, into careers that are rewarding and beneficial to society.
34	faculty and students

35	Support to older, returning students. Support services to help student succeed.
36	It's facility, location, and quality of faculty and staff.
37	Faculty and staff
38	faculty, student support services, D2L staff,
39	Student concious
40	Updating buildings for the future.
41	Quality instruction at a rather good price.
42	RCTC's greatest strength is it's history - being the oldest two-year community college in Minnesota.
43	The people
44	Commitment to keep current with technology and new programs
45	Community partnerships and programming
46	The Sports Center, the new Health Sciences builing, the new Stadium.
47	Faculty and staff without hidden agendas who put the students' needs first instead of their own.
48	Administration who cares, faculty who care.
49	Our committed faculty & staff. The ability to positively influence the lives of our students.
50	accessability to the community
51	Community involvement; accessibility; partnerships
52	Students and faculty
53	Smallness.
54	staff
55	Potential, potential, potential
56	The faculty who are willing to help students.
57	Its faculty. So many of them are exceptionally talented. Administration should learn to trust them, and to take its hands off the wheel and let this ship steer itself. Without administrative interference we would have much higher morale and much happier employees and students.
58	It's history, location, and relative low cost.
59	Outstanding Maintenance Staff
60	There are great people who have creative ideas about how the college could serve students and employees better.
61	Image--the college is great at "bells and whistles"
62	Finding the niches that are not being covered by other institutions. Being innovative.
63	Programs offered.
64	Strong communication,trust,caring,great education and commitment to the students.
65	technology
66	The president
67	Friendly staff.
68	We have some great faculty here who are doing innovative, creative, learner-centered things and who instruct with integrity. If I knew a student who planned to attend here, I would help that student choose those certain faculty as instructors.
69	Publicity
70	Students
71	RCTC's efforts to invite the community to use RCTC facilities for little or no payment to RCTC.
72	RCTC has tremendous facilities for a two-year college.
73	Beautiful, easily accessible campus with student focused faculty and staff; wide selection of courses offered at various times each semester; caring, committed faculty and staff
74	It's people
75	Some of its faculty.
76	Many faculty who work many hours to provide education and support for students.
77	One on one interaction between students and faculty.
78	Continually make the same mistakes with hiring every time..

79	Quality of education, location, variety of programs
80	The willingness to find it's weaknesses.
81	Our ability to meet the needs of our students and the community as a whole.
82	outstanding teachers
83	accessibility for all, caring faculty, great president
84	Improvement and updating of the facilities.
85	The close relationship among faculty and the dedication I see on behalf of faculty toward the success of their students.
86	immediate coworkers.
87	location
88	Some of its teachers. A few of its counselors. The SSSP group. The nursing program and other medical programs.
89	Family atmosphere; student centered..... although I think RCTC has tipped TOO far in the direction of the 'rights of the student' and 'what the student thinks' rather than what educated, experienced faculty think!!!
90	individual faculty who are experts in their field and who can communicate their knowledge to students, multiple sections of course offerings for day and night students, excellent/helpful library staff
