ACADEMIC STANDING

Withdrawals may impact your academic standing at Rochester Community and Technical College. College Standards require that, in addition to maintaining minimum GPA standards, students must successfully complete at least 67% of their attempted credits. Credits for courses with grades of “W” are counted as attempted but not successfully completed in terms of calculating completion percentages. Students successfully completing less than 67% of their attempted credits are considered to be making unsatisfactory academic progress and are subject to probation and/or suspension from the college.
