The State of MN Competency Test for Nursing Assistants and Home Health Aides consists of a written test and a skills test taken on the same day. If you are interested in taking the State of Minnesota Competency Test please follow these steps:

☐ Step 1 – Determine your eligibility
☐ Step 2 – Prepare required documents and fees
☐ Step 3 – Identify a testing date
☐ Step 4 – Register

Step 1: Determine Eligibility to Test

You maybe eligible to apply to take the NNAAP or the NA/HHA Exam for certification as a nursing assistant candidate, a nursing assistant/home health aide candidate, or as a test-out candidate in Minnesota. To determine your eligibility review the following questions:

1. Have you completed a state approved Nursing Assistant Program, within the past two (2) years? If you answered yes, you are a NURSING ASSISTANT CANDIDATE, move on to step 2 on the next page. If you answered no, move on to the next question.

2. Have you completed a state-approved combined Nursing Assistant/Home Health Aide training program within the past two (2) years? If you answered yes, you are a NURSING ASSISTANT/HOME HEALTH AIDE CANDIDATE, move on to Step 2 on the next page. If you answered no, move on to the next question.

3. Are you currently on the MN State Nursing Assistant registry and have recently completed an approved home health aid program and now are seeking home health aid certification? If you answered yes, you are a HOME HEALTH AIDE CANDIDATE, move on to step 2 on the next page. If you answered no, move on to the next question.

4. Did you answer NO to the three questions above? Then you qualify to take the state of Minnesota Competency Test as a TEST-OUT CANDIDATE. Note that Test-Out candidates are only allowed to take the Nursing Assistant Exam.

   Examples of a TEST-OUT CANDIDATE are:
   - You have not taken a nursing assistant program or it has been over two (2) years since taking the program;
   - You have not worked as a nursing assistant in the last two (2) years;
   - You are a nursing assistant from another state and do not qualify for reciprocity in Minnesota;
   - You are a student nurse or graduate nurse candidate; or
   - You were trained in another country
   - Your certification has lapsed

Now, that you know your eligibility continue to Step 2, on the next page.

Updated: 02/23/11
Sharing any contents of the written and skills testing or your results of the testing with another student. It is the responsibility of RCTC and the student to keep all contents of the testing confidential.

I have read the above Code of Conduct for the Nurse Aide Skills Evaluation program, and understand that failure to comply with the Conduct of Code may result in disciplinary action.

5. Frequently Asked Questions

How long will the exam take?
Be prepared to be at the exam site all day, 8 am – 5 pm. Candidates move through the exam at different rates therefore, it is difficult to calculate an end time.

Will I receive my result the same day?
Your official test results will be faxed from Pearson VUE before you leave the test site. If there are any problems receiving your faxed results, Pearson VUE will mail your results directly to your home address.

What if I can’t test on the date I chose?
Call 507-280-3157, or stop by our office HC 107 (Heintz Center) to cancel or transfer your registration. A $25.00 administration fee will be charged for all cancellations or transfers, with a 5 business days notice. No shows, cancellations, or transfers with less than 5 business days notice, will be charged the full RCTC fee. In the event of an RCTC cancellation a full refund will be issued.

What if I can’t test on the date I chose due to illness?
Contact our office immediately, 507-280-3157, to transfer test date. The $25.00 administrative fee may be waived for students who can provide documentation of illness (doctor’s note).

What if I forget my ID or do not have a picture ID the day of the test?
You will NOT be allowed to take the test and will be charged the full RCTC fee for the test.

Do I have to wear scrubs?
No, scrubs are optional but we do require that you wearing loose fitting clothes that is easy to move around in. Failure to wear appropriate clothing may result in you being dismissed from the exam and you will lose your RCTC registration fee (see page 19).

Will I be asked to volunteer for the skill evaluation?
Yes, you may need to act as a volunteer for the skills evaluation by playing the role of a nursing home patient. A card with directions about how to volunteer will be given to you by the evaluator the day of the test.

What behavior/actions are considered violations, to the Student Code of Conduct?
- Use or threatened use of violence, either verbal or written,
