

2025-2026 | FINANCIAL AID

Consortium Agreement

A Consortium Agreement allows a student to receive financial aid at Rochester Community and Technical College (RCTC) for coursework taken at another College/University (Host School). Host school courses must be equivalent to courses required for the student's declared major at RCTC. The completed Consortium Agreement form must be submitted to the Welcome and One Stop Center no later than the 5th day of the semester.

I understand and agree to the following statements:

- The RCTC Financial Aid Office will include the credits listed above when determining my financial aid eligibility for the semester indicated. Aid will be applied to my RCTC tuition, fees, and other authorized charges on my account. Any remaining funds will be released to me (the student), to be used to pay my bill at my Host School.
- I remain responsible for payment of my tuition, fees, and other costs at my Host School. I understand RCTC will NOT make any payments to my Host School.
- I agree not to accept Financial Aid from my Host School for the semester of this consortium agreement.
- I will notify RCTC Welcome and One Stop Center of any changes to my enrollment within 10 days of the change (drop, add, withdraw, or program resignation). Upon completion of these courses, I agree to provide a final, official copy of my Host School transcript to RCTC.
- I give authorization to both RCTC and my Host School (listed above) to exchange information about my enrollment, grades, attendance, balance due and Aid status for the purposes of executing this agreement.

Student Signature: _____ Date: _____

As a representative for the Host School, I certify the student named above is enrolled for the term and in the courses as listed above. I agree that my institution will not award or disburse Federal Student Aid to the student during the term of this agreement. I understand the student remains responsible to pay Host School costs by the established deadlines or make other arrangements. Once the student's RCTC account is paid in full, any residual Aid will be released directly to the student. RCTC will not make any direct payments to the Host School. The Host School agrees to notify RCTC within 10 days of any change in the student's enrollment.

 Attach a copy of the student's registration and fee statement  as confirmation of the student's enrollment as listed above and to serve as documentation of tuition, fees, textbook, and other expenses incurred by the student at the Host School.
